Call for Sponsorship

Sponsorship opportunities are now available for the European Conference on Precision Livestock Farming (ECPLF) which will be held in University College, Cork, Ireland between Monday 26th August and Thursday 29th August 2019.

This conference brings together the worldwide specialists in Precision Livestock Farming. We expect industrial participations from several sectors: pharma, nutrition, technology, ICT, etc.

The conference will incorporate an Industry Forum; Networking Event; Farmers' Workshop; Business Models Seminar; Specific parallel conference sessions.

Sponsorship Programme

Sponsorship of the ECPLF provides an excellent opportunity to promote your organisation. The conference will attract the leading speakers, delegates and industry members from throughout Europe and will build on successful previous ECPLF conferences.

Industry Forum

- Plenary paper - Invited international speaker at EU Commission for Agriculture level
- Short presentation (8 min) by each of 5 selected companies (Platinum/gold sponsors)
- Industry and stakeholder interests: Panel discussion with professional facilitator on needs of the industry from production (farmer) viewpoint in conjunction with the technological solutions available today and potential solutions available for tomorrows world as seen by solution providers and incorporating 'real time' audience questions

This Industry Forum will give a particular opportunity to technology companies to showcase their thinking and approach to future technologies and where they can fit into future farming systems.

Networking Event

A special 1-hour session at the start of the conference will be dedicated to discussions with senior Precision Livestock Farming researchers from across Europe. They will be discussing and offering their perspectives on current technologies and future research.
